NOTE: The following is an explanation of the Family Number.

Example: 1195 Lee Roy Just

The number must be read backward as follows.

5 Lee Roy Just is the 5th child of 9 Henry Martin Just who is the 9th child of
1 Martin Just who was the 1st child of
1 Martin Just who is the head of the Just Family.

Reading the number from left to right gives you your generation number.

1- Martin Just (head of Just Family) His number is first so he is the 1st generation.
1- Martin Just. His number appears second so he is a member of the 2nd generation.
9- Henry Martin Just. His number appears third so he is a member of the 3rd generation.
5- Lee Roy Just. My number appears fourth so I am a member of the 4th generation.

MARTIN JUST I

Great-grandfather Martin Just was born in the year 1817 in Germany. In 1847, he with his family moved to Southern Russia. During his life he had four wives. The name of his first wife, Elizabeth Prieb, may not be correct. After her death he married Annie Leitke an aunt of Wilhelmine Lietke. After her death he married Caroline Krause, and after her death he married Lena Graemer. At the time he married his fourth wife, great-grandfather was a wealthy farmer. His fourth wife had a son from a previous marriage (see picture 2) who was a heavy drinker and led an intemperate life. They had no money at the time they became members of the Just family. She was very selfish, for when the harvest workers would sit at the table to eat, she would place herself at the end of the table and watch the food disappear. In her estimation they would eat entirely too much. She obtained the key to great-grandfather's money chest and from it she would take money to give to her worthless son who would spend it in a riotous manner.

Agunda, great-grandfather's daughter from his second wife, wanted to marry a well-to-do miller but great-grandfather would not permit it for unknown reasons. Instead, after great-grandfather's fourth marriage she was induced to marry this Graemer boy whom she did not love at all. This marriage was a very unhappy one for Agunda. He did not provide for her wants, but only lived to spend great-grandfather's money. At the time of grandfather's visit to Russia in 1885, great-grandfather had told him that he was very sorry that he had not permitted Agunda to marry the miller. He also at that time told grandfather that if any of his children ever wanted to get married and really loved someone, that he should not insist that they refrain from doing so. It is reported that grandfather in turn also advised his children the same.

At the time of great-grandfather's death, his wealth had been greatly depleted and some time after his death, Agunda starved to death as a result of her father's money having been spent and her husband's refusal to support her.

Great-grandfather was a member of the Lutheran church of Russia. He paid large sums of money to the Bishop who kept him in spiritual darkness. When asked concerning his own religious beliefs he would answer in Low German "Loat ma gonna" (let it go). When grand-father embraced the Mennonite faith, great-grandfather was highly displeased.

His highest value in life was to gain much wealth. His favorite past-time was to go out on his fields and see how good his farm was doing. In fact his last words were instructions as to how his servants were to take care of the growing grain. Nothing delighted him more than to see his farm prosper. Great-grandfather employed a number of servants at all times.

In the year 1887 great-grandfather died of heart trouble at Lietkesdorf, South Russia. He lived to be 70 years of age. It is interesting to note that grandfather also died of heart trouble.

MARTIN JUST II

Grandfather Martin Just was born in Gremsdorf, Elbinger Kreis near Dansig, Germany on June 5, 1838. In 1847 his parents moved to South Russia to take up farming. It was here on August 22, 1865 that he married Wilhelmine Lietke who was born May 22, 1847 in Dorf Mirau, South Russia. In the year 1873 in the dorf Alexanderthal, they accepted in simple faith the salvation which God has provided for all of us through His Son Christ. Upon the confession of their faith they were baptized and received into the Menn. Breth. church whose faithful members they remained until their death. The following children were born to them in Russia. Martin M., John, Fred, William F., Wilhelmine (Minnie), Mary and Jacob J.

In the spring of 1880 they migrated to America. They traveled by train through Germany to Hamburg. In Hamburg, they boarded a ship and sailed for their new home landing in New York harbor. From there they traveled by train, arriving at Peabody, Kansas June 20th. They established their farm home three miles west of Aulne, Kansas after having spent the summer with some friends. Although none of the original buildings remain, an old hand-dug, stone-lined well remains in excellent condition as a product of grandfather's handiwork. While living in Kansas, the following children were added to the family. John L., Henry M., Anna, Peter M., Elizabeth B., and David.

Upon the request of his father in Russia, grandfather made a trip in 1886 to visit him. Great-grandfather paid the fare. It was fortunate that grandfather made the trip at that time as six months later great-grandfather passed away.

On April 2, 1895 grandfather moved his family to Oklahoma where he settled seven miles north-west of Fairview. It was in this farm home, on October 19, 1903 at 6 p.m. at the age of 70, that his life found its completion. He left to mourn his sudden death his wife, ten children and thirty-one grandchildren. His body now rests in the South Fairview Menn. Breth. cemetery. Upon his grave, his loving wife planted roses which through all these years have been blooming beautifully each spring.

On June 10, 1909, grandmother married Peter L. Jantzen and moved with him to Corn, Oklahoma. From Corn, they moved to Beaver Co. where on July 14, 1919 after seven months of serious illness God saw fit to call her home. She had reached the age of 72 years.
